Mission Statement

The purpose of MBI shall be to foster, protect and preserve the sport of bowhunting and archery for current and future generations.

Goals

- Present our membership's positions to government officials, departments and legislators.
- Support efforts to increase opportunities for archers to hunt on public and private lands.
- Educate hunters and the general public on the values of archery and hunting.
- Promote and work to maintain high quality wildlife habitat in Minnesota.
- Promote good sportsmanship, good hunting ethics, and safe hunting practices.
- Support enforcement of regulations which curtail the illegal or unethical taking of wildlife.
- Provide opportunities for archers to meet, share experiences, engage in friendly competition and develop a fraternal spirit.
